

Knitting Kindness: Hats for NICU Babies

Join us during the month of September for a heartwarming initiative to support NICU babies in our community. Whether you're a seasoned knitter or just getting started, you can make a difference—one stitch at a time!

In-Person Knitting Programs

Boiling Springs Library

Loom Knitting Workshop – hands on for all skill levels (supplies limited to first 10 people)

Monday, Sept. 15, 2025 | 10:00 AM

Cyrill-Westside Library

Stitches in the Stacks – for all skill levels, must bring your own supplies

Saturday, Sept. 13, 2025 | 2:00 PM

Inman Library

Yarn Club – a drop-in social knitting group – needles and yarn provided

Fridays in September | 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Make to Donate Kits

Prefer to knit at home? Pick up a free “Make to Donate” kit from one of the following locations beginning Monday, September 1, 2025:

- Cowpens Library
- Inman Library
- Landrum Library
- Middle Tyger Library
- Pacolet Library
- Woodruff Library

Each kit includes yarn, a pattern, and instructions to create a cozy hat for a NICU baby. Supplies are limited

All hats will be collected by Friday, September 26, 2025 and donated in early October.

Let's come together to spread warmth and love—one tiny hat at a time.

For more information, visit spartanburglibraries.org or contact your local branch.

SPARTANBURG COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARIES
www.spartanburglibraries.org