Everyone

Karen McDowell is back to celebrate African-American History Month! Join us on February 10 as she portrays an important historical figure – we don't know who she'll be, but we know the surprise will be someone worth learning about!

Kids

Lego Club is on February 5. Bring your architectural skills in for a Valentine-themed challenge!

Homeschoolers, we'll be learning how to paint like a professional! Treats will be available as we practice our brush strokes. This activity is most suitable for the 6-12 age group, and registration is required.

At Mini-Makers, we're creating beautiful "fractured art" pieces with watercolors. It may get messy, so don't wear your Sunday Best. This activity is most suitable for the 6-12 age group.

Teens

What's your favorite Valentine's treat? Come in on February 10 for a taste test and see what you've been missing!

Hot cocoa and games are on deck on February 24. Bring your friends and challenge them to Apples to Apples, Battleship, or something else!

Adults

It's never too early to start planning your garden. Join a Master Gardener from Clemson University on February 3 as he tells us how to get our landscapes ready for spring.

How is climate change influencing what we eat? Conserving Carolina is presenting a program on February 17 about potential coming changes to food production and consumption.

Foothill Book Circle will be discussing Bill Bryson's fascinating book, One Summer: America, 1927 on February 26. Get your copy at the circulation desk and join us!
