Book Review by Leverne McBeth

In the Hall with the Knife By: Diana
Peterfreund

Are you looking for a young adult novel based on the board game? In this mystery, the classic board game Clue comes to life. Teens are cast in all the infamous roles from Miss Scarlett to Mr. Mustard. This mystery is addictive from the first page as a snowstorm has trapped the group of boarding school students inside the school's main hall, and just when they think they are safe and warm, there is a murder in the group! The book reads quickly from there are clues to reveal, backstories are explained, and the killer is unmasked! This novel is part one of the Clue Mystery Series. I would recommend this book to anyone ages 14 and older.
