Book Review by Kourtney Deas

This urban fantasy book is right up the alley for any fans of the Sookie Stackhouse Series or the Mercy Thompson Series. Set in superstitious New Orleans, Cate is a nurse who is tired of the crime happening on her streets that is spilling into her emergency room. Almost all of the city's problems point to the Gage crime family. One day, Cate's brother gets involved in the Gage family, and she makes a deal to get him out of trouble. Little did Cate know, you must be wary of bargains especially if you're striking one with Fae. The entire Gage family is part of a supernatural world where fairies, vampires, werewolves, and witches are real, and Cate's world gets a whole lot bigger. Soon Cate must navigate her feelings for the head of the family, Lachlan, with her own moral compass. Can she find a way to live in both worlds?
