Libraries Closed

All branches of the Spartanburg County Public Libraries will be closed on Monday, October 12 for Staff Day.

October is National Book Month and the perfect time to try something new.

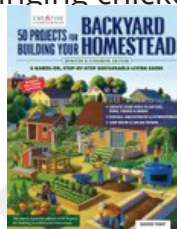

Visit the Pacolet Library to explore books on homesteading, gardening, cooking, and other practical skills. Pair your reading with our upcoming Raising Backyard Chickens program and discover resources that help you learn new hobbies and connect with your community.

Raising Backyard Chickens: What You Need to Know

October 24 at 2:00 p.m.

Free and open to the public.

Have you ever thought about raising chickens in your backyard? Fresh eggs, natural pest control, and a fun hobby all in one! A local chicken keeper will share tips on coop setup, feeding, daily care, and what every beginner should know before bringing chickens home.

Become a Library Volunteer!

Looking for a meaningful way to give back to your community? Whether you're a teen or an adult, the library has a place for you! Volunteers help with a variety of tasks, including:

- Cleaning and organizing shelves
- Assisting with library programs and events
- Preparing craft materials
- Supporting Summer Reading activities

Teens can also join our VolunTEEN Program, where they'll gain valuable experience, earn service hours, and make new friends - all while supporting the library they love.

Events at Pacolet Library

Adults

Saturday, 10/3
1pm
Sip, Stitch, & Socialize

Enjoy a relaxed, welcoming space to work on your craft projects while connecting with others in the community. Sip, Stitch & Socialize is a casual, bring-your-own-project gathering where patrons can stitch, knit, crochet, sew, embroider, or work on other portable crafts while socializing and sharing what they're creating.

Friday, 10/16
2pm
Beginning Yoga: Benefits for Mind and Body

Saturday, 10/24
2pm
Raising Backyard Chickens: What you need to know before you start.

Have you ever thought about raising chickens in your backyard? Fresh eggs, natural pest control and a fun hobby all in one! Join us for Raising Backyard Chickens and learn the basics of starting your own flock. A local chicken keeper will share tips on coop setup, feeding, daily care and what every beginner should know before bringing chickens home.

Kids

Saturday, 10/24
10:30am
Squish & Giggles Playdough Club

Join us every 4th Saturday of the month from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for a fun, hands-on Playdough Club! Children will squish, roll, and create while exploring textures and shapes in a relaxed, playful environment. This activity supports fine motor skills, creativity, sensory exploration, and social interaction - all while having plenty of fun. Come ready to get a little messy, a lot creative, and share lots of giggles. Best suited for ages 6 & under.

Wednesday, 10/28
2:30pm
Homeschool Hub: America 250th

American Revolution - Set sail in your foil boat across the Delaware River. This activity is most suitable for the 6-12 age group. Materials available to the first 24 participants. Please register in advance starting Wednesday, October 21.

Teens

Thursday, 10/8
3:30pm
Teens Watch: Five Nights at Freddy's

Eat popcorn and watch as the new night shift security guard at Freddy Fazbear's Pizza realizes things aren't as they seem when the animatronic creatures at the restaurant come alive, hungry for revenge. Rated PG-13. For teens ages 12-18 or grades 7-12.

Thursday, 10/22
4pm
Teen Crafternoon: Paint a Pumpkin

Use stencils or your imagination to paint a spooky pumpkin masterpiece. For teens ages 12-18 or grades 7-12.
