Charging Personal Electronic Devices at the Libraries

Library patrons may use available outlets to charge small personal electronic devices at their own risk, provided they stay with their devices and do not move furniture.

- Allowed devices: Cell phones, tablets, laptops, and small portable chargers.
- Prohibited devices: Large batteries, large power banks, and batteries for e-bikes, scooters, or similar transportation.
- Patron responsibilities: Patrons must remain with their property. Moving furniture to reach outlets is not allowed. Patrons are responsible for the condition of their devices.
- Library liability: The library is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged personal property inside the building or in the parking lot.
- Safety enforcement: Library staff can request the removal of any charging device that looks visibly damaged to protect the building and equipment.
